East Granby Veterans Message

The East Granby Veterans have suspended their meetings until further notice. We will still be awarding our annual scholarship. The VA is still a good resource to use. We look forward to seeing everyone when we come through this and some level of normalcy returns. Stay well.

East Granby Public Library Message

We are updating our website www.egpl.org with links to virtual tours of museums and national parks, links to author and illustrator live events, links to many different types of enrichment along with links to free ebook and free audiobook resources, which are above and beyond the access to ebooks, audiobooks and magazines we always offer through OverDrive. Anyone can email me to renew their library card in order to access OverDrive at doreenj@egpl.org.

Nourish My Soul Message

Nourish My Soul will be launching virtual classes (for free) this week. We are really excited and working out all the details/bugs this weekend. They will be accessible on Nourish My Soul's Youtube channel and we will put links on our website, www.nourishmysoul.org. There will be classes for all ages and cover topics like growing food/gardening, cooking/culinary & nutrition while weaving in mental health, and diy projects like blessings boxes, birdhouses, fairy gardens, etc.. there will be an interactive component to tackle social isolation. We will also launch virtual dinners and cook-offs for socialization.

Let me know if you have any questions or suggestions!
